

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 41—No. 37

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1912

Single Copies 5 Cents

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Advertisements will be inserted under this head at two cents per word for first insertion and one cent per word thereafter. Cash must accompany the order. No advertisement will be inserted for less than twenty-five cents.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Young pigs, Buckley Brothers, Barton. 31tf

FOR SALE—Empire cream separators, Buckley Brothers, Barton. 37tf

FOR SALE—Ford touring car in good condition. Run only 4500 miles. M. H. Lewis, Barton, Vt. 37tf

FOR SALE—Home on Park street. House, barn and two acres of land. Inquire of D. D. Gilmour, Barton. 36-37 p

FOR SALE—House and lot in this village. John Bushard, Barton. 36-37p

FOR SALE—Sawdust at our Brownington mill. As large load as you want for 25 cents. Chandler Company. 6tf

FOR SALE—Lumber, dimension, spruce and fir one-inch boards, No. 1 and 2. F. W. Baldwin, Barton. 25tf

TO RENT

TO RENT—Desirable tenement for small family. C. L. Erwin, Prospect St. 37tf

TO RENT—R. & M. mileages. Small mileages for sale. R. P. Webster, Barton. 30tf

FOR RENT or SALE at bargain—cottage at Willoughby lake, well furnished. Also 1 survey to sell; price reasonable. Write or telephone Twombly & Colton, Orleans. 21tf

WANTED.

WANTED—Poultry and fresh eggs, E. S. Kelley, Orleans. 31tf

HELP WANTED—Women to run power machines, manufacturing muslin underwear. Work clean and good pay. Peerless Mfg. Company, Barton, Vt., Sept. 10, 1912. 37tf

LOST.

LOST—All leather halter on fair grounds Thursday of fair. Finder leave at Whitcher's, Barton, for reward. 1w

LOST—Between clay hill on Willoughby lake road and Orleans on August 6, Lady's white sweater. Mrs. L. S. Nye, Orleans. 1w

MISCELLANEOUS.

See ad wool carding, handspun knitting yarn. 25-etwtf

Can spare a few rooms for winter boarders. Can save you money by boarding at Hotel Barton. Inquire our prices, etc. J. V. Rowen, Prop. 37tf

BARTON

Mrs. Susan Currier visited in Sutton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hartwell spent Sunday in Northfield.

A fireplace is being built in the Congregational parsonage.

Alden G. Owen of Montpelier is a new clerk in the bank.

Bessie Ready of Perth, Ont., is the guest of Gladys Katen.

Miss Avis Brewster of Boston is visiting at Harlow Foss's.

Miss Alice Chamberlain spent Sunday with friends in North Troy.

G. H. Davis has sold a Studebaker E. M. F. 30 auto to Albert B. Emerson.

Charles Austin of this place is a new clerk in the E. W. Barron Company store.

Mrs. C. E. Hamblet has been visiting the past week at Barre, Chelsea and Northfield.

Earl W. Fisk left Tuesday for Northfield, where he will enter Norwich University.

C. E. Hamblet was in Sherbrooke, P. Q., last week assisting the management of the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kenison of Hartford, Conn., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Mosher last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Glazier have moved to Greenfield, Mass., where Mr. Glazier has employment.

C. L. Hutchins has gone to Boston, where he will meet Mrs. Hutchins. They will return Saturday.

O. H. Mossman, who recently sold his farm in West Glover, will move into the Dr. Nichols house.

Cecil Wells and Howard Dow of St. Paul, Minn., are here visiting their mother, Mrs. Walter Colby.

Mrs. Mary Goodro returned last week from a ten days' visit to her son, B. H. Goodro, in New York.

Misses Muriel Bickford, Mildred Bickford and Beth Fay left for their home in Woodside, Del., Monday.

Monday, Levi Lapete sold 17 lambs, 16 of them twin lambs, averaging in weight 93 pounds, to W. E. Hanson.

Sunday Schools Attention!

The Orleans County Sunday School convention will be held at North Troy, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 26 and 27. A strong program has been arranged which includes some of the splendid talent both of the state and county. Among those who are on the program are the following: State president H. A. Slayton of Morrisville, state field secretary, Miss Edith Balch of Burlington, Rev. Morgan E. Pease of Richmond, Mrs. R. K. Ware, Coventry, Rev. G. W. Burke, Orleans, Rev. S. T. Achenbach, Greensboro, Mrs. A. M. Shields, Glover, and Miss Ruth Barr, Greensboro Bend. Every school in the county is requested to send three delegates beside pastor and superintendent. The convention will open Thursday evening, the 26th, and close with the afternoon session on Friday, the 27th.

Lightning Causes Two Fires.

During the thunder storm last evening lightning struck the barn of Geo. Degreenie, living on a cross road from Glover to the Duck pond road and destroyed the barn with the hay. The loss is partially covered with insurance. Lightning also set fire to the barn of Ben Mason on Lowell mountain in Irasburg last evening and destroyed the barn and a quantity of hay.

Stag party at the clubhouse on Friday evening. All members are urged to come, and talk over another auto trip.

C. F. Cutler is one of the petit jurors at the September term of Orleans county court now in session at Newport.

W. H. Drant and family, who have occupied the Pillsbury house on Park street for about a year, have moved to Newbury.

Prof. H. S. Morse of Williamstown High School spent last week in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell.

Mrs. W. M. Wright and Mrs. Lucy Robinson were the guests of Mrs. Alida Niles at her home in Coventry last week.

Miss Carrie Jones of the Rollins store was called to her home in West Burke the first of the week on account of the death of her father.

Mrs. Francis Butler, Miss Frances Butler and Miss Belle Butler left Saturday for Queen City Park, Burlington, where they will spend a week.

Mrs. Guy Rogers and two children of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Hattie Patterson of Whitman, Mass., visited at Zuar Hanson's and H. T. Seaver's last week.

C. L. Erwin, H. T. Seaver, F. D. Pierce and R. P. Webster were in Burlington last week to attend a meeting of the district deputies of the Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thompson, Mrs. H. R. Cutler and Judge and Mrs. W. W. Miles were in Burlington last week to attend the meeting of the Vermont Bar association.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dutton and son Harry of Portsmouth, N. H., accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Davis from Waltham, Mass., visited at F. D. Pierce's last week.

Miss Glenn Devereaux, who has employment in Norwood, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Devereaux, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Twombly.

Co. D., 6th Vt., will hold its 33rd annual reunion in the vestry of the M. E. church on Friday, October 4th. There will be a business meeting in the forenoon and dinner at 2 o'clock p. m., in church parlors.

Ernest Clark, who was seriously ill at Mrs. F. K. Powell's, underwent an operation for appendicitis at Bright-hospital, St. Johnsbury, and has so much improved that he has returned to Mrs. Powell's for a short stay.

The 1912 Dramatic Players gave their play, "How Jim Made Good," at North Troy, Friday evening. The play was a success in every way and was well attended. A dance was given after the play, music being furnished by Potter's orchestra of Barton. The party went by way of automobiles.

After the regular Rebekah meeting last evening a surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williamson in Odd Fellows' hall. Refreshments were served and remarks made by Rev. W. A. Warner before a "shower" of useful gifts was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Williamson by their many friends.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. W. C. Blake, D. A. Clark, Arthur Chalifoux, W. C. Dutton, Alice Fisher, Mrs. Carrie Hawley, B. J. Hooker, Preston Hawley, Oscar Heath, Frank Jeliffe, Joseph Sanville, Miss Elizabeth Thorison, Ramos Tillitson.

The Woman's Alliance will hold their fair Friday afternoon and evening, Sept. 20th, in the vestry of the M. E. church. The public are cordially invited to attend and all friends and members of the parish are expected to contribute. This is an opportunity to purchase articles not otherwise obtainable. A concert will be given in the evening by local talent consisting of vocal solos, readings, instrumental solos and selections by the orchestra. Admission to the concert, 15 cents.

Miss Della R. Bliss of this place, who for the past two years has been enrolled for a course in shorthand and typewriting in the Chicago Interstate School of Correspondence, has completed her course with much credit ac-

Haines Carries Maine.

W. T. Haines, republican candidate for governor of Maine, carried that state Monday against Gov. Plaisted, democrat, 70,928 to 67,905 votes. Haines was the man upon whom the republicans and progressives concentrated to oust the democrats. Three republican congressmen were elected and one democrat.

Big Fire at Craftsbury.

Fire was discovered about four o'clock Tuesday morning in the rear of Claude King's store, which destroyed the King store, J. E. Davidson's paint shop and Ernest Dill's barber shop and tenements. The buildings were located in the center of the village and it was with difficulty that other property near by was saved. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is practically covered by insurance.

Victim Dies from Wounds.

Pearl Hooper, the young colored woman, who was shot at Sam Franklin's dance hall Monday night in Winoski village, died the next morning at Fanny Allen hospital, Burlington, where she was removed after the shooting. A search for Margaret Carter, also colored, aged 25, is being made, and it is alleged she did the shooting.

cording to her instructors' testimony. Her average per cent was very high and they say it "speaks well for her ability as a student, and for her perseverance and tenacity of purpose." To do this work alone without the presence of instructors and master both these branches is certainly praiseworthy.

The first regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. for the new year was held Tuesday, Sept. 10, with Mrs. A. T. Buswell as hostess. Thirteen members and two visitors were present. Topic, "Physical Education." After a roll call and business meeting the following interesting program was carried out: reading, "A Description of Muscles and Their Work," Mrs. F. S. Whitcher; paper, "What Is Physical Culture?" Mrs. C. B. Webster; violin solo, Henry Buswell; reading, "How Physical Culture Cures Disease," Mrs. G. C. Lang; open discussion; singing, benediction.

Mrs. Betsey Hawkins died September 2nd, at her home in Barton. She was the widow of the late William G. Hawkins and was in the 84th year of her age.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Card of Thanks—We wish to express our thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown to us in our bereavement in the death and burial of our loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. Oney Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawkins, Geo. Hawkins, Mrs. Clara Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Williamson.

ALBANY

Lloyd Hackett has the chickenpox.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cheney were in Newport Thursday.

Bernice Cutler and Arthur Copeland are ill with measles.

Mrs. Delia Honey has returned from a visit in Montpelier.

David Sackett of Manchester, N. H., is visiting his sister.

Miss Gould of Newport, N. H., is visiting Mrs. Delia Honey.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Berry are visiting in Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Darling are visiting their son at Oak Bluffs.

Mrs. C. D. McGuire visited her mother at Knowlton, P. Q., last week.

Thomas Winget of Ascot, P. Q., recently visited his son, Charles Winget.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stone visited Mr. Stone's brother in Brownington Center last week.

G. W. Parker attended the Twombly-Wellman wedding at Orleans Wednesday evening.

Fred A. Aiken, a former Albany boy, has just been appointed postmaster at La Paloma, Texas.

After balloting 14 times no election was obtained and Albany will not be represented in the coming legislature.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather a good number enjoyed the grange picnic in the Nelson grove Thursday.

Mrs. Will Stevens and two daughters, who have been visiting at Mrs. Jennie Chafey's, have returned to their home in St. Johnsbury.

EAST ALBANY

Roy Long is working for Mrs. L. Cameron.

Jennie Foss has returned to her work at Barton.

Elizabeth Sinon has gone to Orleans to attend school.

Margaret Sinon has returned to her school in Johnson.

Walter Kenneson and Jim Long were in Newport Saturday.

Mrs. F. B. Wiss of Newark, N. J., has been visiting friends in town.

School in district No. 5 commenced Monday with Effie LaFont as teacher.

Mrs. Wm. Richmond of Newport has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Cameron.

The Misses Margaret Cray and Mary Drislane of Bellows Falls are visiting at Fr. Cray's.

Later Election News.

The compilation of the county election returns was made so hurriedly last week that some errors were bound to creep in. The most serious was in giving Newport's democratic vote. The Monitor gave it at 95 last week and it should have been 195, giving Newport a total vote of 639 votes for governor instead of 539. Albany had not elected a representative when we went to press last week and after balloting 14 times gave it up and will be unrepresented in the legislature this year. The latest news of the state figures is given on page two of this issue.

Orleans County Court.

The September term of Orleans county court opened at Newport yesterday with Judge W. W. Miles of Barton presiding. The docket contains very few juror cases and the term will probably be short. There are a number of court cases.

Lena Dennison, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to New Haven, Conn.

Warren G. Story, formerly of this place, but lately of Chelsea, Mass., died at his home there, August 26, aged 72 years.

Fred Sinon of Newark, N. J., who has been visiting his parents, returned home last week. His brother John accompanied him for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Mason, who have been visiting friends here, went yesterday to Hotel Barton, where they will spend a few weeks before returning to their home in Hartford, Conn.

SOUTH ALBANY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keith visited at A. A. Webster's Friday.

Miss Marjorie Hardy is attending school at North Craftsbury.

Miss Mary Cutler has been visiting at Ora Andrews for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron were recent callers at Andrew Graham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey of Crafts-bury spent Sunday at E. W. Hardy's.

Mrs. A. C. Williams was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. O. E. Rowell, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Blair of Newport have been spending a few days at A. A. Webster's.

Mrs. Sarah Anderson, who has been visiting relatives in East Hardwick, has returned home.

Marjorie and Vernon Hardy, who have been visiting relatives in Perkinsville, returned home Saturday.

Miss Amy K. Pickett, who has been spending the summer at Oney E. Rowell's, returned Monday to her home in Boston.

Ed. Jerome from Hardwick and his brothers Ira and Truman Jerome from Massachusetts called on friends in town last week.

There was a social gathering at W. B. Locke's Friday evening. A goodly number were present and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Thomas F. Macarthy, Misses Isabelle and Lucy Macarthy, who have been at Andrew Graham's for the past two months, returned to Boston on Monday.

Mrs. A. C. Williams and Mrs. O. E. Rowell were in Glover last Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lydia Chase. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mrs. Fred C. Brown of Orleans, Mrs. Cora Reine of Chicago, Mrs. Lois Page, Mrs. H. G. Perley and Miss Cora Rowell of Barton and Mrs. S. T. Vance of West Glover visited relatives here the latter part of the week.

BROWNINGTON

Arthur Davies is visiting his aunt in Topsham.

Linnie Newton has returned to her school in Sheffield.

Eva Day was home from her school in Derby over Sunday.

Hazel Cushman of West Derby visited May Grow recently.

Miss Gladden of Coventry is teaching in the north district.

Read the auction advertisement of P. D. Kelley in this issue.

Victor Swanson is at work with his gasoline engine cutting corn in this vicinity.

Miss Mary Newton of Lowell, Mass., was a guest at Fred Newton's the first of the week.

Lloyd Kerr, who has been visiting O. A. Grow, has returned to his work in Westfield, Mass.

Mrs. C. H. Batchelder of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Litchfield.

Rev. W. A. Warner of Barton supplied the pulpit here in exchange with Rev. E. W. Eldridge Sunday.

Seldon Gray, an aged resident of this place, died at his home Thursday afternoon, September 5, after a very short illness. The funeral was held at his late home Monday, August 9.

Mrs. Oliver Dwyer and son Charles visited at Nathan Barry's and John Cheney's on their way home to Sheffield from Sherbrooke fair, also at Mrs. Homer Benjamin's in Newport.

BROWNINGTON CENTER

Miss Laura Whitehill is teaching in Charleston.

Mrs. Rebecca Badger visited her daughter in Barton last week.

Mrs. Hattie Grow and daughter May have been visiting at Wilmer Gray's.

Mrs. J. C. Houston and son Lennie are visiting relatives in Manchester, N. H.

Mrs. Henry Roberts from Charleston has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Seavey.

Mrs. Laura Marshall of St. Johnsbury has been visiting her sister, Mrs. B. A. Seavey.

Mrs. Philo Powers has returned from Barnet, where she has been visiting her parents.

F. W. Aldrich and daughter Grace of Springfield have been visiting at Elmer Aldrich's.

Several from this town attended the state meeting of the D. of L. at Plainfield Wednesday.

Mathew Whitehill and Mrs. Emma Marsh of Morgan have been visiting at Horace Whitehill's.

Mrs. Collins Lacourse has returned home from Sheffield, where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. George St. Peter has been caring for Mrs. Prescott, who has returned from Brightlook hospital.

The body of Seldon Gray was brought here for burial Monday, Sept. 9. This was Mr. Gray's 77th birthday.

Mrs. Ora Dwire and children from Newport and Mrs. Oliver Dwire from Sheffield have been visiting at John Dwire's.

E. M. Porter has returned from Boston, where he went to attend the National Council of the Daughters of Liberty, sent from this state as a delegate.

CRAFTSBURY

"Aunt" Ellen Stratton is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. John Harvey is in a very critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. James Withers took an auto trip to Danville Sunday.

Mrs. Huse from Brownington visited Mrs. Lucy Patterson last week.

Rev. R. F. Lowe will preach in the M. E. church next Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wylie from New Hampshire are visiting in this town.

Mrs. R. C. Moodie left Monday for Calais, where she will remain several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Robbins have moved into the mill house on the East hill road.

Dr. and Mrs. Dillingham were called to Johnson Thursday by the death of the doctor's father.

Alden Twiss left last Saturday for White River Junction, where he expects to remain until after the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Keir have arrived in town and are spending a little time at the Keir cottage at the Ellego.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Batchelder from Burke, accompanied by Mrs. Batchelder's mother, visited relatives in this town over Sunday.

Mrs. J. N. Patterson was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington last Friday, where she expects to undergo an operation the first of this week.

Mrs. Hattie Patterson and daughter, Mrs. Ella Rogers, and two children left last Wednesday for Boston. Mrs. Rogers will leave at once for her home in Portland, Oregon.

The death, in California, of Mrs. Edward Hastings is announced. She has been a respected resident of this town the most of her life. Much sympathy is felt for her husband and daughter.

GLOVER

Claud King was in town Monday.

Mrs. Pierce of Albany is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Dow.

Miss Lora Morse from St. Johnsbury visited her cousin, J. W. Mathie, last week.

Carl Bean is improving the appearance of his new barn with a coat of paint.

Miss Ida Bean has returned to school at Stanstead, accompanied by Miss Mildred Merriam.

Mrs. Sarah King has returned from the Massachusetts eye and ear infirmary, accompanied by Mrs. Edna Clark.

Mrs. E. A. Norton and Mrs. Mary Cobb went by auto to Lyndonville last week for a visit and returned home by train.

Herbert Swanwick, who has been spending the summer with his great-uncle, Ben Mason, has returned to his home in Lowell.

The remains of Mrs. Lydia Chase were buried here last week Wednesday. Mrs. Chase was born and has lived all her life in town.

The funeral of John Salmon, who died of pluro-pneumonia was held at his residence Tuesday morning, Rev. W. A. Warner officiating. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved wife, the circumstances being doubly sad because of the ill health of her only daughter.

WEST GLOVER

Mr. and Mrs. O. King have been visiting friends in Hardwick.

Mrs. Cordelia Cutler and Oscar Skinner are with Mrs. Emma Skinner.

School in District No. 1, commenced September 9, Miss Doris Cameron teacher.

Thomas Burns from Coaticook, P. Q., is visiting his niece, Mrs. Lucy Stevens.

Gladys Cameron goes this week to Plymouth, where she will take a teacher's training course.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lyman was held at the home of N. T. Lyman Friday evening. All wish Mr. and Mrs. Lyman much happiness.

I wish through your paper to thank those of my friends who so kindly remembered me on my 74th birthday with the postcard greetings.
A. E. Denison.

Wm. Cameron and daughter Doris have returned from their western trip, they report a fine time. Miss Findley from Nebraska came with them and will visit friends in this vicinity.

GREENSBORO

Miss Vivian McConachie is working for Mrs. M. D. Chase.

Mrs. Jane Evans went to Boston last week Saturday for an indefinite stay.

Rev. F. A. Collins is visiting his father in Pennsylvania for a few weeks.

Prof. W. W. Rockwell preached at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning.

Miss Edith Kibbey went last Monday morning to Montpelier, where she is to attend school.

A surprise party was given Myrtle Alger at the home of C. A. Goodrich Monday evening, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday.

Miss Flora Kibbey, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. A. Messer, for two weeks, went to her home in Newport, N. H., Monday.

The members of the C. E. society gave Edith Kibbey a surprise party last Thursday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. T. Achenbach. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed.

HOLLAND